Simplified Insolvency Programme (SIP)

Cause

Impact of COVID-19 pandemic on businesses

Concern

Anticipated increase in corporate insolvencies

Consequence

Solutions not well suited for micro and small companies

Constraint

Singapore insolvency laws and companies with substantial assets

Revamped SIP 2.0

Simplified Debt Restructuring Programme (“SDRP”)
Simplified Winding Up Programme (“SWUP”)

Administered by licensed Insolvency Practitioners

(a) Simplified Debt Restructuring Programme

SDRP – Overview of Processes

1) Passing of special resolution in general meeting

Company's Duties

- Pass special resolution in general meeting to enter into SDRP

2) Assessment of entry eligibility

Company's Duties

- Submit all required documents to RA

RA's Duties

- Assess Company's entry eligibility
- Lodge notice of entry and special resolution with ROC if eligible
- Publish notice of entry on OR's website
- Send notice of entry to every creditor

3) Formulation of Debt Restructuring Proposal ("DRP")

RA's Duties

- Formulate DRP between company and its creditors

4) Voting by creditors (One voting class)

RA's Duties

- Summon meeting of the company and its creditors to consider the DRP
- Administer voting at meeting
- Publish notice of outcome of creditors' meeting on OR's website

5) Lodgement of restructuring plan

RA's Duties

- Lodge approved DRP with the ROC and OR

6) Discharge from programme

RA's Duties

- Send notice of discharge to every creditor if DRP is approved
- Publish notice of discharge on OR's website if DRP is unsuccessful or moratorium period expires
- Submit post-administration report on OR's e-Services if DRP successful or unsuccessful

* RA – Restructuring Adviser
OR – Official Receiver
ROC – Registrar of Companies

SDRP - Key Feature: One Voting Class

Creditor Type	Can Vote?	How is the vote (in value) counted?	Implications
Secured (Partially Secured)	Yes	Value of debt owing less security	• Approved DRP binding to the extent of the difference. • Not prevented from enforcing security[#].
Secured (Fully Secured)	Yes	Nil	• Approved DRP binding to the extent that creditor consents to be bound. • Not prevented from enforcing security[#].
Ordinary Unsecured	Yes	Full debt amount	• Approved DRP binding on these creditors.
Preferential	Yes*	Full debt amount

*If the DRP provides for the inclusion of the preferential debt.

[#] Unless voted in favour of the DRP and such proposal prevents the creditor from enforcing security
